WHO WE ARE

Founded in 2010, Rhino Rescue began as a pre-hospital emergency product supplier. Based on the concept of fast, efficient and scientific transfer of emergency care, we continuously improve and innovate our products, providing premium first aid and IFAK [Individual (or Improved) First Aid Kit] supplies to worldwide front-line emergency medical personnel. In the EMS [Emergency Medical Services] specialty, we are your professional partner.

WHERE ARE YOUR KITS BUILT? WHERE ARE THE CONTENTS MADE?

Our first aid kits, rooted in global expertise, represent a confluence of insights and strategies from military medical and tactical experts across the world. With key research and development centers in Ratingen, Germany and Chino, California, USA, we blend the best of international knowledge and technological prowess to produce the highest quality kits. Our products are the result of a comprehensive international collaboration, involving contributions from the United States, Germany, and many other countries. It's not just about assembling kits; it's about harnessing global wisdom to provide superior safety solutions that cater to the needs of our diverse customer base.
